

1. When the ships were repaired, the Romans warned the Greeks waiting near Ostia not to attack the coast of Italy.

main clause:

subject: _____ person _____ number _____
verb: _____ person _____ number _____ tense _____ voice _____
D.O.: _____ case _____ number _____

“waiting near Ostia” modifies _____ subordinate clause: (not the “ablative absolute”) type of clause: _____ mood of verb needed in Latin: _____

subject: _____ (“they” is understood) _____ person _____ number _____
verb: _____ person _____ number _____ tense _____ voice _____
D.O.: _____ case _____ number _____

Vocabulary suggestions: nāvis ___ moneō ___ exspectō ___ Graecus ___ oppugnō ___ lītus

2. When the women were passing by the public fountain, the calm leader ordered his soldiers to hold back the huge crowd. (use an “ablative absolute”)

Vocabulary suggestions: fēmina ___ fōns ___ mīles ___ retineō ___ ingēns ___ multitudō
