

1. The praetor ordered the captured slaves to be hung from the gates of the city early in the morning so that the remaining slaves would not embrace the deeds of those who had fled to the nearby mountains.

main clause:

subject: _____ person _____ number _____ verb: _____ person _____ number _____ tense _____ voice _____

Identify two subordinate clauses:

1. _____ person _____ number _____
subject: _____ person _____ number _____ tense in Latin _____ voice _____ mood _____
verb: _____ person _____ number _____ tense in Latin _____ voice _____ mood _____

2. _____ person _____ number _____
subject: _____ person _____ number _____ tense in Latin _____ voice _____ mood _____
verb: _____ person _____ number _____ tense in Latin _____ voice _____ mood _____

Vocabulary suggestions: māne__porta__iubēre__reliquus__actum, actī, n. __proximus__fugere

2. After Paris and Domitia pray to the goddess Isis and stain the altar in the garden with a white goat, Myropnus will soon be destroyed by an evil slave girl, unless he returns to the temple immediately.

Vocabulary suggestions: maculō, -āre - stain__ara__niveus,-a,um - white__caper, -pris, m. - goat__nisi (future-more-vivid condition)

