

Stage 36
Translation

Nomen: _____

1. We marvel so much at a house when it is being destroyed by fire that we do not take notice of the man standing next to us who started the fire and is now enjoying his work, smiling with joy equal to our astonishment.

grammatical items to look out for: result clause, relative clauses, cum clause, verb + abl.

Vocabulary suggestions: tantum, dēlēre, iuxtā, incītāre, opus, rīdēre, gaudium, stupor, -oris, m. (astonishment), noster

2. The emperor ordered the senators to support the law which Salvius Liberalis had proposed concerning the Egyptian merchants so that he would not be hated by the Roman people.

grammatical items to look out for: indirect command, relative clause, negative purpose, double dative

Vocabulary suggestions: imperāre, favēre, lēx, prōpōnere, odium
